SOUTHERN ARIZONA CHESS ASSOCIATION

SACA is...

SACA is a 501c3 (non-profit) organization made up of chess players, coaches, and parents dedicated to promoting and developing chess as a significant element of the culture and community in Arizona. An annually elected board of volunteers governs the affiliate towards this interest. SACA is an affiliate of the United States Chess Federation.

EastSide Chess Club

The EastSide Chess Club (ESCC) offers a place for casual and more serious players to watch and play chess (sets and clocks are provided). The ESCC offers club rated and USCF rated games, monthly and annual tournaments, and Master simuls and lectures. The club meets on Wednesday evenings from 6:30 - 10:00 at the Jewish Community Center on River and Dodge.

SACA Tournaments

SACA organizes and runs chess tournaments throughout the year for both adult and scholastic players.

Tucson Open in January
US Amateur West in May
Ye Olde Pueblo in July

Scholastic Warm-up in September
Scholastic League October through February (once a month)
Regional Championships and Tucson Scholastics in March

SACA Players

SACA has helped produce numerous state and national (individual and team) champions, FIDE and USCF Masters, and the 1997 World Junior Champion, GM Tal Shaked.
